PROPOSALS FOR SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE DRAUGHTS Of SOUTH-CAROLINA:

Being a complete MAP of the ſaid PROVINCE, from an actual SURVEY.

AS our Work has met with the Approbation of the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY, we hope our Propoſals will merit the Favour of the Public, and therefore think it neceſſary to inform them in general, on what Plan it will be executed.

I. It will make a Map Six Feet Four Inches, by Five Feet Four Inches, neatly engraved on a Scale of Three Miles to One Inch, with all the Houſes and Proprietors Names of any Note; the Swamps, Marſhes, High-Lands, Iſlands, Roads, Forts, Towns, Counties, Pariſhes; Pariſh Counties, and Provincial Lines; the Sea-Coaſt, navigable Bays, Inlets, Creeks, Rivers, Ferries, Bridges, and inland Navigation; all marked and digeſted in a diſtinguiſhable Manner. Alſo an enlarged Plan of the Bar and Harbour of Charles-Town, with a Ground Plat of the ſame, with References to the whole. In ſhort, no Expence will be ſpared to render it as complete and uſeful as any Map extant.

II. Each Subſcriber to have one complete Sett, and to pay on the Delivery (which we hope will be in Twelve Months) ONE GUINEA and an HALF. The Gentlemen who pleaſe to favour us with their Subſcriptions, ſhall have their Names carefully publiſhed in an alphabetical Liſt, unleſs they deſire the contrary.

We cannot omit informing the Public, that the Situation of South-Carolina, from the Variety of Rivers, Creeks, Swamps, and inland Navigation, will add greatly to the Beauty of this Map.—The interior Parts will be no leſs curious, being interſperſed and variegated with Rivers, Creeks, and rich Lands. We are, the PUBLIC's

Moſt obedient, humble Servants,

MAXIMS, dedicated to His MAJESTY KING GEORGE THE THIRD.

A Prince who falls out with his Laws, breaks with his beſt Friends.

A Prince who corrupts his Parliament, and influences them to exalt their Authority above the Laws, lets in an Enemy to ſurprize his own Guards; for the Laws are the only Guards he can be ſure will never run away from him.

A Prince who thinks himſelf not to be free, unleſs he can do whatever he pleaſes, teaches his People a bad Leſſon: for they may ſay they are Slaves, unleſs they can do whatever they chuſe.

Power and Liberty are like Heat and Moiſture: where they are mixt every Thing proſpers: where they are ſingle, they are deſtructive.

Where the worſt Men have the moſt Credit with the Prince, People will be apt to conclude, that the Way to get every Thing is, to be good for nothing.

An extravagant or unmerited Gift to one Man, raiſes the Market to every Body elſe.

If common idle Beggars are whipped, the idle Penſioners, thoſe daily Beggars in fine Cloaths, out of a proportionable Reſpect to their Quality, ought to be HANGED.

A wiſe Prince will not ſo far pleaſe his Favourites and Courtiers, who are Birds of prey, as to diſpleaſe his People, who are Beaſts of burden.

A Prince, who forms his Reſolutions too ſoon, will be in Danger of repenting it too late.

It is leſs dangerous for a Prince to mind too much what the People ſay, than too little.

Though a wiſe Prince will ſupport good Servants againſt Men's Anger, yet he will not ſupport bad Miniſters againſt their Complaints.

There is more Dignity in open Violence, than in the mean Cunning of a Prince, who goes about to impoſe upon and corrupt his People.

When the Prince's Appearance ceaſes to excite the Acclamation and Reverence of his People, it is a ſure Sign that his Power is waſting; and there will be but a little Diſtance of Time between their ceaſing to applaud, and their refuſing to obey.

A People may let a King fall, and yet ſtill remain a People; but if a King lets his People ſlip from him, he is no more a King.

NESTOR.

LONDON, MAY 15.

YESTERDAY at a court of common council, a motion was made that the thanks of the court be given to lord Chatham for his late conduct in parliament, and for his zeal ſhewn for the moſt ſacred right of election; and of petitioning, and for the promiſe of his endeavours to ſupport an independent and more equal repreſentation. Reſolved, that the following gentlemen wait on lord Chatham with the ſaid thanks, viz. Aldermen, Stevenſon, Croſby, Trecothick, Townſhend. Commoners, deputy Cockſedge, G. Bellas, Eſq; deputy Judd, S. Freeman, Eſq; Mr. Beardmore, Mr. Sharp, deputy Townſhend, and Mr. Anderſon. Mr. Bellas made a motion that is be preſented by the whole court, which was carried in the affirmative.

It is ſaid, that the occaſion of holding the above court, was on account of ſeveral perſons having alledged, that the late petition and addreſs for an anſwer to the remonſtrance of the livery, was not properly a corporation act, being obtained by only a part of the livery; and that therefore the above motions were again made in the court of common council of yeſterday.

It is ſaid to have been agreed yeſterday, that unleſs a ſatisfactory anſwer be given to their remonſtrance, no taxes will be paid.

MAY 17. Yeſterday the Sheriffs went up again to St. James's, to know his Majeſty's pleaſure, when he would chuſe to permit the lord-mayor, aldermen, and common council, to wait upon him with the ſecond Addreſs, Petition, and Remonſtrance of the corporation of London; and his Majeſty was pleaſed to appoint Wedneſday at two o'clock.

Sir Francis Bernard, baronet, will not return any more to his government of Maſſachuſetts-Bay. It is ſaid he is to have a penſion for life of 300l. per annum.

It is reported that inſtructions are preparing for the ſeveral American governors, for purſuing proper meaſures to prevent any diſturbances which may ſeem likely to ariſe in their reſpective provinces.

Monday night lord Chatham and his party effected a political manœuvre which like to have been attended with great ſucceſs to their cauſe, for when lord Hillſborough leaſt expected it, a motion was made reſpecting the Middleſex election; which ſo highly alarmed the premier, that the ableſt ſpeakers of the court ſide were forced to exert their utmoſt abilities to evade putting of the queſtion for near two hours; while in the mean time meſſages were diſpatched to every quarter, to ſummon the abſent members, whoſe arrival at laſt carried it by a majority.

A letter from Hull ſays, "Another ſquadron of Ruſſian men of war is expected to anchor in the Humber early in the month of June, ſeveral of our pilots having lately been engaged for that purpoſe, who have already ſailed for the Sound, in order to be ready to go on board as the ſhips arrive there, that no time may be loſt in the proſecution of their voyage on this important expedition."

MAY 19. Yeſterday his grace the duke of Richmond made a motion in the Houſe of Lords, for taking the affairs of America into conſideration. He obſerved, that though his Majeſty at the opening of the ſeſſion had recommended the ſtate of government in America, to their ſerious attention, yet not one word had ſince been ſaid upon the ſubject in that houſe. Adminiſtration had never ſo much as appointed a day for ſo important a conſideration. Even when the frivolous and trifling revenue acts were repealed, they would not utter a ſyllable. He ſhould therefore offer to the conſideration of their lordſhips a number of propoſitions, in the form of reſolutions; the firſt of which his grace read as follows; Firſt, Reſolved, that in ſeveral of his Majeſty's colonies in North-America, diſorders have of late prevailed, prejudicial to the trade and commerce of this kingdom; and deſtructive to the peace and proſperity of the ſaid colonies. Upon which lord Hillſborough ſtood up, and confeſſed himſelf to be the culprit (his own word) yet without offering any ſort of juſtification, or making any kind of defence, or without going into the merit of the queſtion, only ſaying, that the affairs of America ought to be left to the conſideration of the miniſtry, who might form ſome plan during the receſs of Parliament, (though for theſe two years paſt, every meaſure reſpecting America has been originated in parliament------How contradictory of himſelf!) he moved to adjourn. However, before the queſtion to adjourn was put, all the reſolutions amounting to eighteen in number were read. Lord Shelburne obſerved, "That ſuch reſolutions againſt the culprit, being moved to be put off by himſelf, was ſuch a manifeſt violation of juſtice, and ſuch a proſtitution of parliament, that he hoped impeachment would ſoon follow. He reproached adminiſtration for having put into the King's mouth, at the beginning of the ſeſſion, a recommendation of the affairs of America, as one of the principal objects for the conſideration of parliament; and then ſuffering every day to elapſe, without ſo much as noticing that great object; and now that it was come to the laſt day, and the matter moved by the noble duke, they with a moſt ſhameful and ſcandalous effrontery, avoided all enquiry, by moving and putting the queſtion to adjourn." The miniſtry refuſed to take any notice of the propoſed reſolutions; they only called out for the queſtion to adjourn, which being put was carried.

A report is current at the weſt end of the town, that lord Halifax is to be appointed ſecretary of ſtate, in the room of the earl of Rochford.

The final determination of the great Angleſey cauſe is put off till next ſeſſions.

When the ſheriffs were at St. James's on Wedneſday laſt, the city remembrancer, after having informed lord March, the lord in waiting, of the buſineſs they came upon, in order to prevent any freſh altercation happening, touching his admittance into the cloſet, he ſtated what had been the immemorial uſage of his office in that inſtance, and deſired to know whether the repulſe he had met with before was by deſign or not? the lord anſwered, by deſign. The ſheriffs deſired lord March to inform his Majeſty of the ancient uſage, and hoped to know his Majeſty's pleaſure whether the remembrancer ſhould be admitted or not. Lord March immediately acquainted the King therewith, and ſoon after a page informed the ſheriffs, that it was his Majeſty's pleaſure for the remembrancer to be admitted.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

The humble Addreſs, Remonſtrance, and Petition of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your MAJESTY,

WHEN your Majeſty's moſt faithful ſubjects, the citizens of London, whoſe loyalty and affection has been ſo often and ſo effectually proved and experienced by the illuſtrious houſe of Brunſwick, are labouring under the weight of that diſpleaſure which your Majeſty has been adviſed to lay upon them, in the anſwer given from the throne to their late humble application; We feel ourſelves conſtrained with all humility to approach the royal father of his people.

Conſcious, Sire, of the pureſt ſentiments of veneration which they entertain for your Majeſty's perſon, we are deeply concerned, that what the law allows and the conſtitution teaches, hath been miſconſtrued by miniſters, inſtruments of that influence which ſhakes the realm, into diſreſpect to your Majeſty.

Perplexed and aſtoniſhed as we are, by the awful ſentence of cenſure lately paſſed upon this city, in your Majeſty's anſwer from the throne; we cannot, without ſurrendering all that is dear to Engliſhmen, forbear, moſt humbly to ſupplicate, that your Majeſty will deign to grant a more favourable interpretation to this dutiful, though perſevering claim of our invaded birthrights; not doubting that the benignity of your Majeſty's nature will, to our unſpeakable comfort, at length break through all the ſecret and viſible machinations to which the city of London owes its late ſevere repulſe; and that your kingly juſtice and fatherly tenderneſs, will diſclaim the malignant and pernicious advice which ſuggeſted the anſwer we deplore: An advice of moſt dangerous tendency; inaſmuch as thereby the exerciſe of the cleareſt rights of the ſubjects, namely, to petition the King for redreſs of grievances, to complain of the violation of the freedom of election, and to pray for a diſſolution of parliament, to point out male-practices in adminiſtration, and to urge the removal of evil miniſters, hath, under the generality of one compendious word, been indiſcriminately checked with reprimand; and your Majeſty's afflicted citizens of London have heard, from the throne itſelf, that the contents of their humble addreſs, remonſtrance and petition, laying their complaints and injuries at the feet of their Sovereign, as father of his people, able and willing to redreſs their grievances, cannot but be conſidered by your Majeſty, as diſreſpectful to yourſelf, injurious to your parliament, and irreconcileable to the principles of the conſtitution.

Your Majeſty cannot diſapprove, that we here aſſert the cleareſt principles of the conſtitution, againſt the inſidious attempt of evil counſellors to perplex, confound and ſhake them: We are determined to abide by thoſe rights and liberties, which our forefathers bravely vindicated, at the ever-memorable revolution, and which their ſons will ever reſolutely defend. We therefore now renew, at the foot of the throne, our claim to the indiſpenſible right of the ſubjects,---a full and free unmutilated parliament, legally choſen in all its members;---a right which this Houſe of Commons have manifeſtly violated, depriving, at their will and pleaſure, the county of Middleſex of one of its legal repreſentatives, and arbitrarily nominating, as a knight of the ſhire, a perſon not elected by a majority of the freeholders. As the only conſtitutional means of reparations, now left for the injured electors of Great-Britain, we implore, with the moſt urgent ſupplications, the diſſolution of this preſent parliament, the removal of evil miniſters, and the total extinction of that fatal influence, which has cauſed ſuch national diſcontent.

In the mean time, Sire, we offer our conſtant prayers to Heaven, that your Majeſty may reign, as Kings can only reign, in and by the hearts of a loyal, dutiful, and free people.
